In a striking space designed by acclaimed artist Maya Lin, the Museum of Chinese in America is an ideal event and meeting venue. Located at the cross-section of Chinatown, Little Italy and Soho, the Museum bridges a thoughtful, modern aesthetic with an industrial, historical feel.

Residing in a former machine works warehouse, the Museum is an intimate and unique setting for any event. The lobby and exhibit space feature bronze tiles, darkened fir floors, and reclaimed lumber. The permanent collection surrounds a pre-existing inner courtyard deliberately left raw to symbolize how much of our past we bring to our present.

Meetings and events can be customized to include any or all of the Museum’s spaces so your guests can have a truly unforgettable experience.
THE EAST WEST BANK LOBBY features Maya Lin's dramatic bronze-patina monument dedicated to Chinese American families, which serves as an elegant, subtle backdrop to the space.
